Course Description

This course is part of the four-course STEAM Certificate process. It is designed to help you integrate, peer-review and reflect on STEAM teaching. During this course, you will implement your previously created STEAM Unit Plan, video a STEAM lesson and share it with others in the class, receive feedback from instructors and colleagues, and reflect on how you will refine your teaching moving forward.

Learning Outcomes

After completing this course, students will be able to:

- Implement, reflect on, and revise a STEAM unit plan.
- Evaluate classmates' lesson plans.
- Synthesize critical feedback of STEAM teaching
- Analyze implementation practices and describe plans for future teaching.

Prerequisites

ED 8700: STEAM Instructional Design and ED 8710/8711: STEAM Transdisciplinary Teaching are prerequisites for this course.

Required Materials and Skills

All assigned readings and videos are integrated into the Canvas modules you will complete. Due dates are listed on the course schedule. You will also need a Google Apps for Education account. (CCIT provides detailed instructions for setting up your Google Apps for Education account.) This course contains video content, so you will need to have access to speakers and/or headphones.

Students should check their Clemson Gmail accounts and the course Canvas site regularly and respond accordingly. This course requires students to use many online tools and websites, so basic fluency with accessing Internet resources is a required competency. Course participants should also be comfortable performing basic computing skills, including attaching files to email messages, creating and saving documents in word processing programs, and backing up files.

For technical assistance with the online course site, students should contact ithelp@clemson.edu or visit CCIT's website.

Instructional Strategies

This course will draw on video lectures, collaborative group work, interactive discussions, readings, and refinement of assignments.

Assessment Strategies

Assessment Strategies will include ongoing observation of activity in online forums, evaluation of written participation, work, and projects/media activities.

Grading Policies

All points and grades will be communicated via the Grades tab in Canvas. This will allow me to post grades and comment on your progress as well as provide you with ongoing feedback on your progress in the course.

I will return your graded work within 72 hours, excluding weekends and official university holidays.

Graded Work

I will calculate your grade using a 100-point scale. Points are distributed as follows:

Grading Breakdown
Assignment	Points
Participation	30 points
Assignments	40 points
Final Paper	30 points
TOTAL	100 points

Grading Scale

The following table breaks down the point ranges associated with each letter grade:

Grading Scale
Percentage (%)	Letter Grade
94 - 100	A

90 - 93	A-
87-89	B+
83 - 86	B
80- 82	B-
74 - 79	C
64 - 73	D

Graded Activities

Participation and Discussion Boards (30 points): You are expected to log in to the course Canvas site weekly, complete each module's requirements by the deadlines listed in the course schedule, and contribute to all discussion boards on time. For this portion of your grade, you will complete 9 graded discussion activities. The first discussion activity is worth two points; the remaining eight activities are worth three points each.

Assignments (40 points): You will complete the following four assignments, each of which is worth 10 points:

1. Unit Plan Talk-through
2. Video STEAM Lesson
3. Journal Entries
4. Peer Review Video Lessons

Midterm Project \(4 points\): For this project, you will compare and contrast traditional instruction and STEAM instruction.

Final Paper \(30 points\): Your final paper will require you to write a 4-5 page paper that synthesizes what you've learned in the course.

Course, School, and University Policies

School of Education Mission

We ignite learning. We strive for well-being for all. We teach. We commit to student, family, and community success. We commit to educational equity. We advocate. We work for justice. We cultivate relationships. We forge engaged partnerships. We collaborate. We learn with and from communities. We innovate and agitate. We pursue and produce knowledge. We research. We disrupt and transform inequitable educational structures. We approach learning as intertwined with health, wellness, and human development. We address how national, global, social, and technological change impacts learning. We shape practice and policy. We teach with and for dignity. We think. We dream. We lead with integrity. We are the School of Education at the University of Pittsburgh.

Attendance

Learning is a social process. You are expected to log on to Canvas and work through the modules weekly, be an active participant on the discussion boards, and collaborate with students in the course. In the event of prolonged absences in which you do not participate in the prior (due to sickness or family emergency), you should contact me via email (cquigley@pitt.edu) or phone (864-373-3505). Absence from online classes (failure to log in and progress in the course each week) is not a valid excuse for failing to meet deadlines or fulfill course requirements, and it will result in a deduction of participation points. Extreme emergencies will be handled on an individual basis.

Email

Because privacy regulations stipulate that faculty and staff communicate with students only through authorized University channels, please use your University email account or Canvas's messaging system to contact me.

Copyright

All materials found in this course are strictly for the use of students enrolled in this course and for purposes associated with this course; they may not be retained or further disseminated. Clemson students, faculty, and staff are expected to comply fully with institutional copyright policy as well as all other copyright laws.

Privacy Policy

This course is designed with your privacy in mind. If, however, you feel that an assignment or technology tool undermines your right to privacy, please contact me immediately. We will work together to determine an alternative assignment that will help you achieve the course learning outcomes.

Online Conduct

Appropriate online academic conduct means maintaining a safe learning environment based on mutual respect and civility. All participants in Pitt online courses are expected to behave professionally by adhering to these standards of conduct:

- Never transmit or promote content known to be illegal.
- Respect other people's privacy as well as your own.
- Forgive other people's mistakes.
- Never use harassing, threatening, embarrassing, or abusive language or actions.

Online communication that fails to meet these standards of conduct will be removed from the course. Repeated misconduct may result in being blocked from online discussions, receiving a grade penalty, or being dismissed from the course. Such misconduct in the online environment may also be reported to officials for appropriate action in accordance with University policy. If you ever encounter inappropriate content in our course, please contact your instructor with your concerns.

Late Assignment Policy

The pace of the class requires that you do not fall behind in assignments; thus, late assignments will not be accepted unless arrangements have been made with the course instructor in advance of the due date.

Revising assignments

If your work on an assignment is graded below 80% you may revise and resubmit it one time. However, you should consult with the course instructor before doing so. This consultation should be made within one week of receiving your returned assignment. Re-submissions should be submitted with the original submission. The highest grade you can receive on a resubmitted assignment is an 80%. This will replace your original grade.

Course, School, and University Policies:

Academic Integrity

Students in this course will be expected to comply with the University of Pittsburgh's Policy on Academic Integrity. Any student suspected of violating this obligation for any reason during the semester will be required to participate in the procedural process, initiated at the instructor level, as outlined in the University Guidelines on Academic Integrity. This may include, but is not limited to, the confiscation of the examination of any individual suspected of violating University Policy. Furthermore, no student may bring any unauthorized materials to an exam, including dictionaries and programmable calculators.

Disability Services

If you have a disability that requires special testing accommodations or other classroom modifications, you need to notify both the instructor and Disability Resources and Services no later than the second week of the term. You may be asked to provide documentation of your disability to determine the appropriateness of accommodations. To notify Disability Resources and Services, call (412) 648-7890 (Voice or TTD) to schedule an appointment. The Disability Resources and Services office is located in 140 William Pitt Union on the Oakland campus.

TLL Departmental Grievance Procedures:

The purpose of grievance procedures is to ensure the rights and responsibilities of faculty and students in their relationships with each other. When a student in DIL believes that a faculty member has not met his or her obligations (as an instructor or in another capacity) as described in the Academic Integrity Guidelines, the student should follow this procedure:

1. The student should talk directly to the faculty member to attempt to resolve the matter.
2. If the matter cannot be resolved at that level, the student should talk to the relevant program coordinator.
3. If the matter remains unresolved, the student should talk to the associate chair of DIL
4. If needed, the student should next talk to the SOE associate dean of students.
5. If the matter still remains unresolved, the student should file a written statement of charges with the dean's designated Academic Integrity Administrative.

Civility Commitment

As future or current teachers, we will operate from a standpoint that everyone believes that all students deserve a quality education in a safe setting. The same can be said for university learning. A university classroom is, by definition, a space where a free exchange of ideas must happen, but where consideration for others, their views, and their life experiences is also paramount. When you are uncomfortable with an idea, it is your right to speak up about that. As we learn with and about people with very different life experiences and beliefs from our own, it is imperative that we respect these perspectives and use respectful language in discussing and challenging ideas. Carefully consider your language choices to ensure that all learners feel safe and valued. If at any time, you are uncomfortable please feel free to speak out and/or speak to me privately.

Sexual Harassment

The University of Pittsburgh is committed to the maintenance of a community free from all forms of sexual harassment. Sexual harassment violates University policy as well as state, federal, and local laws. It is neither permitted nor condoned. It is also a violation of the University of Pittsburgh's policy against sexual harassment for any employee or student at the University of Pittsburgh to attempt in any way to retaliate against a person who makes a claim of sexual harassment. Any individual who, after thorough investigation and an informal or formal hearing, is found to have violated the University's policy against sexual harassment, will be subject to disciplinary action, including, but not limited to, reprimand, suspension, termination, or expulsion. Any disciplinary action taken will depend upon the severity of the offense. For more information, see the Pitt Anti-Harassment Statement Policy

Diversity and Inclusion Statement

I consider this classroom to be a place where you will be treated with respect, and I welcome individuals of all ages, backgrounds, beliefs, ethnicities, genders, gender identities, gender expressions, national origins, religious affiliations, sexual orientations, ability – and other visible and nonvisible differences. All members of this class are expected to contribute to a respectful, welcoming, and inclusive environment for every other member of the class.

Names and Pronouns

I will gladly honor your request to address you by your name and pronoun (that may differ from the school records). Please advise me of this preference early in the term so that I may make appropriate changes to my records. You may email me at cquigley@pitt.edu or tell me in person in class, whichever is most comfortable to you! I want to be sure you feel yourself and comfortable in our class community.

Copyright Statement

These materials may be protected by copyright. United States copyright law, 17 USC section 101, et seq., in addition to University policy and procedures, prohibit unauthorized duplication or retransmission of course materials. See Library of Congress Copyright Office and the University Copyright Policy.

Statement on Classroom Recording

To ensure the free and open discussion of ideas, students may not record classroom lectures, discussion and/or activities without the advance written permission of the instructor, and any such recording properly approved in advance can be used solely for the student's own private use.

G-grades

If unforeseen events (such as major illness) prevent a student from timely completion of course work he/she may request a meeting with the instructor to discuss the possibility of earning a "G" grade for the term. If both student and instructor agree to the "G" grade, they collaboratively write a document that describes, in detail, what the student needs to do to complete the required course work and the time frame (not to exceed one academic year) within which he/she must do so. Upon receiving all work, the course instructor would evaluate the work and send forward to the Associate Dean a request for the permanent grade.

Food/Housing Insecurity

Many students, both undergraduate and graduate, experience housing and/or food insecurity that can impact their academic work and general health. Please know there are resources available to you that are confidential. Of course, you are welcome to speak with me if you need support in contacting the right people/offices:
